

Research Article

Published Date: 06/26/2020

Level of Nurses to Patients Communication and Perceived Barriers in Government Hospitals of Bahir Dar City, Ethiopia, 2020

<h2>Abstract</h2>

Background: Communication is the process of exchanging information or messages from one group to the other through mutually understood verbal or non-verbal ways.

Communication

barrier is anything that prevents receiving and under...

Mini Review

Published Date: 05/29/2020

Patients suffer when healthcare stocks rise

When a stock price rises or has a better P/E ratio, this is generally considered a measure of success. Is this true for health insurance stocks? Stock holders certainly are happy, but what about the purchasers of the carriers’ policies? Are patients smiling when the stock price go...

Research Article

Published Date: 04/29/2020

Influence of adverse socio-emotional risk factors on the physical and mental health needs of children and young people in public care of a South-West England local authority

<h2>Abstract</h2>

Introduction: There is increasing published evidence confirming the long-term adult mental and physical health impact of childhood exposure to adverse events including different forms of abuse and family dysfunction. Looked-after...